KIMBA M. WOOD, United States District Judge:

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 73, a United States Magistrate Judge is available to rule on dispositive motions in this case. If the parties consent to the Magistrate Judge's ruling on a particular motion, no objection to the ruling would be permitted under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(2). Instead, the ruling would be treated as any other ruling in the case and would be reviewable to the extent the ruling would have been reviewable had it been made by a District Judge, including, if applicable, an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals.

Exercise of jurisdiction by a Magistrate Judge to make a ruling on a dispositive motion is permitted only if all parties voluntarily consent. To determine whether the parties wish to voluntarily consent to Judge Gorenstein ruling on the motion for class certification (Dkt. No. 258), counsel for defendants is directed to send to counsel for plaintiffs on or before October 14, 2021, a copy of the attached consent form bearing either (1) a signature indicating consent to the Magistrate Judge ruling on the class certification motion, or (2) a notation that the defendants do not consent.

ORDER

14 Civ. 9912 (KMW)(GWG)

On or before October 21, 2021, plaintiffs' counsel is directed to file a letter on ECF either attaching a signed and completed form or stating in the letter that not all parties have consented to the Magistrate Judge ruling on the motion. If any party has not consented, counsel for the plaintiffs shall not state which of the parties have not consented but shall merely state that there has not been consent by all parties.

This Order is not intended to interfere with the parties' right to have a trial and/or any other dispositive proceedings before a United States District Judge. The parties are free to withhold their consent without adverse substantive consequences. If any party withholds consent, the identity of the parties consenting or withholding consent shall not be communicated to any Magistrate Judge or District Judge to whom the case has been assigned.

SO ORDERED.
